        Importance <pre>Farmer</pre>Farmers have great importance in our society. They are the ones who provide us food to eat. Since every person needs proper food for their living,so they are a necessity in society Moreover, farmers who grow these crops are of prime importance.

        They are the ones who provide us food to eat. Since every person needs proper food for theirliving, so they are a necessity in society. There are different types of farmers.
        Therefore the farmers need to have a great knowledge of fruits and crops.
